I am interested in serving on the following GGEA Committees:

- ADVOCATE/COMMUNICATION - GGEA's award winning publication is always looking for writers. If you have a passion for writing, have publishing skills or would just like to learn how to put a newsletter together, this is the place for you! Help with the design of the GGEA website and work on the Facebook page.
- COMMUNITY ACTION - Works to develop and strengthen family-school-community partnerships. The Committee works with H.O.P.E., sponsors the "Day of the Teacher" poster contest and many other activities to enrich our community.
- NEW TEACHER - Provides support for the professional needs of new teachers. The committee plans the new teacher get togethers, workshops and roundtables on issues that are of concern to our new teachers.
- HUMAN RIGHTS - Focuses on providing members the opportunity to attend seminars and trainings on issues. This committee also works to raise awareness of members to human and civil rights issues. They also sponsor the GGEA IMAD award given to members monthly.
- POLITICAL INVOLVEMENT (PIC) - Works to protect the interest of public education through political involvement. Specifically the PIC identifies potential School Board candidates who must believe in Public Education and the issues surrounding it. PIC also plans strategies and to help elect GGEA endorsed School Board candidates.
- RETIREMENT - Works to provide members information about retirement and retirement planning through roundtables, seminars, and share fairs. They also plan and host the Retirement tribute to honor teachers, teacher librarians and nurses who are retiring
- SPECIAL EDUCATION- Works on issues regarding Special Education and arrange for workshops for all members. Develops resources for teachers who provide services for students with special needs.
- ORGANIZING- Plan and implement activities that organize the membership. Increase memberships' awareness of educational and political concerns. Build unity among GGEA members.
- RULES AND ELECTIONS- Conduct all general elections and assist with any vote counts at Rep Council.
- INSTRUCTION AND PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT- Provide opportunities for members to meet and confer about the teaching profession. Will provide professional development for GGEA members.
