The Standard is CTA's New Disability Insurance Carrier

As of September 1st, Unum Provident will no longer be the Voluntary Life and Disability Company that is endorsed by CTA. The Standard Insurance Company will be the new endorsed provider for these services. If you are already enrolled with Unum it will automatically roll over to The Standard. If you have any questions, please call the GGEA office.

Did you know that the GGUSD offers free Yoga and Strength Training Classes with Jerry Cruise? These classes are offered at Chapman Hettinga Education Center currently on Mondays and Thursdays. Call 663-6525 for more information or stop by their office at 11862 Knott Street.

DocSpeaks Motivational Speaker

On August 27, 2007, from 8 to 9:30 am, world-renowned professional motivational speaker Dr. Adolph Brown III will be speaking to the teachers in Garden Grove. Better yet, this will be part of the Super Week activities for which you can receive a stipend. You can register online at the GGUSD website starting at 7 am on June 5th using course #6002.

Everyone is encouraged to attend this event. You will be moved by his message and come away from this hour and a half with a renewed sense of why you entered the teaching profession. For more information on Dr. Brown visit www.docspeaks.com.
